Eames Tables

Meetings and conferences are becoming increasingly important in modern work because teamwork and communication are essential for many jobs. Vitra can also fulfil these needs with classics that have established themselves over the decades: the Segmented Table and the Contract Table by Charles and Ray Eames. Whereas the Segmented Tables are large table systems for classic conferences, the Contract Tables in various sizes are very useful meeting tables. Whether with a white table top and black plastic edge or in selected veneers:

The Eames tables are always impressive pieces of furniture.

The Eames Segmented Tables are available in the new version of "Dark Chrome" with dark chromed aluminium parts. These very carefully finished materials show off the well-known silhouette of the classic in a new and contemporary light.

Vitra offers a wide range of solutions to present conferences in a contemporary style that suits your needs: All conference table systems are extraordinarily durable products made of high-quality materials.
